I Remember

It is at times like this that we can pause and recall all that happened this year, spring and fall.

Fall came with a falling leaf,
a chill in the air,
a flutter of hope,
and hardly a care.

I remember fall activities-- school starting, football, halftime shows, Coeds, band, volleyball,
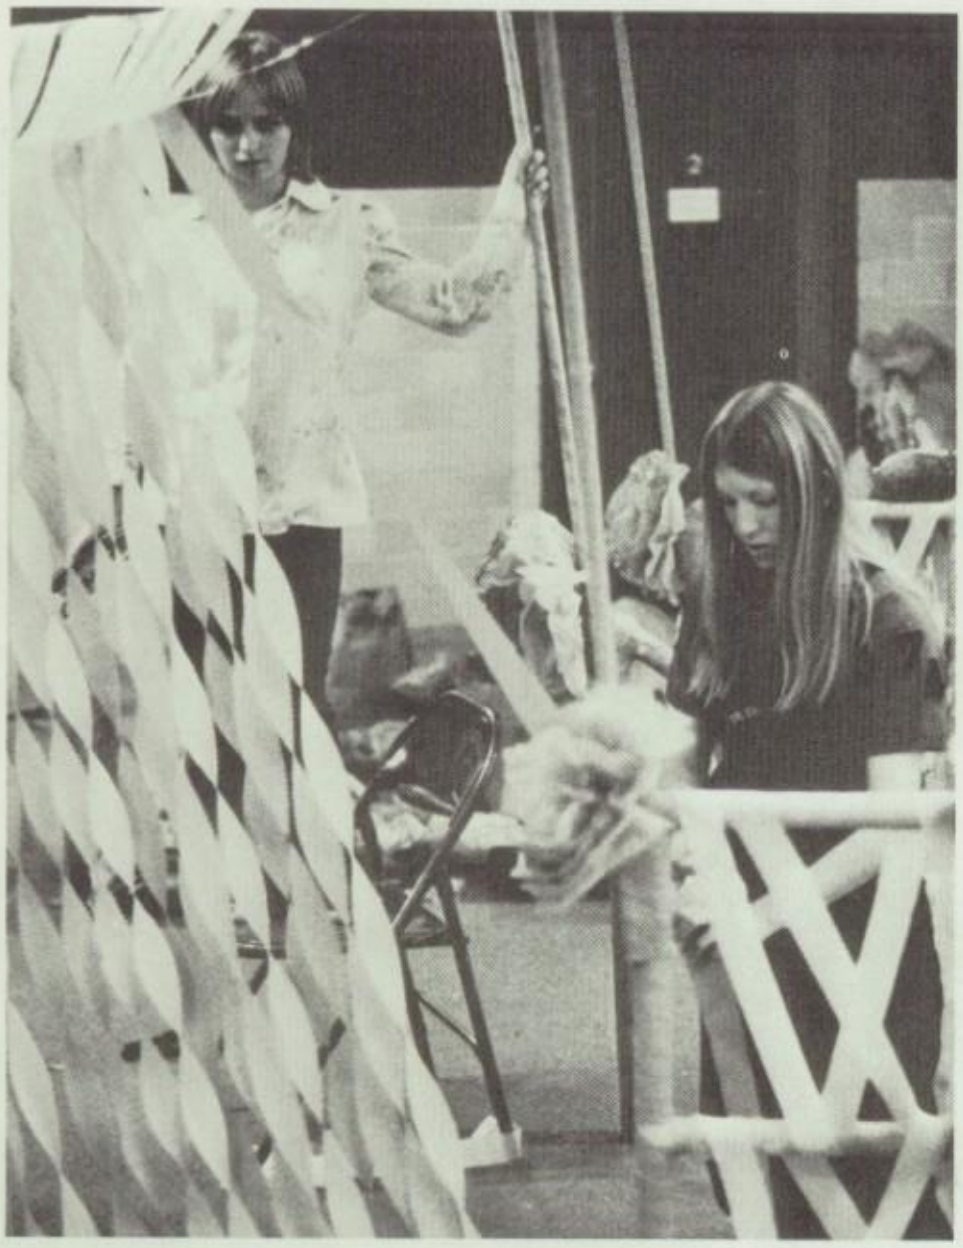
homecoming, bus trips, "favorite" foes,
cross country, wins, losses, a victory call!



Winter was wicked with
it's wind and snow;
but with it's cold,
it brought us close so...

I remember winter activities-- the Greaser dance, snowball fights, good wrestling and basketball seasons
with district and state winners, unusual sights, and things remembered for other reasons.

Spring, too, burst forth with snow, yet was new, green, and alive with life; and new happiness was seen.

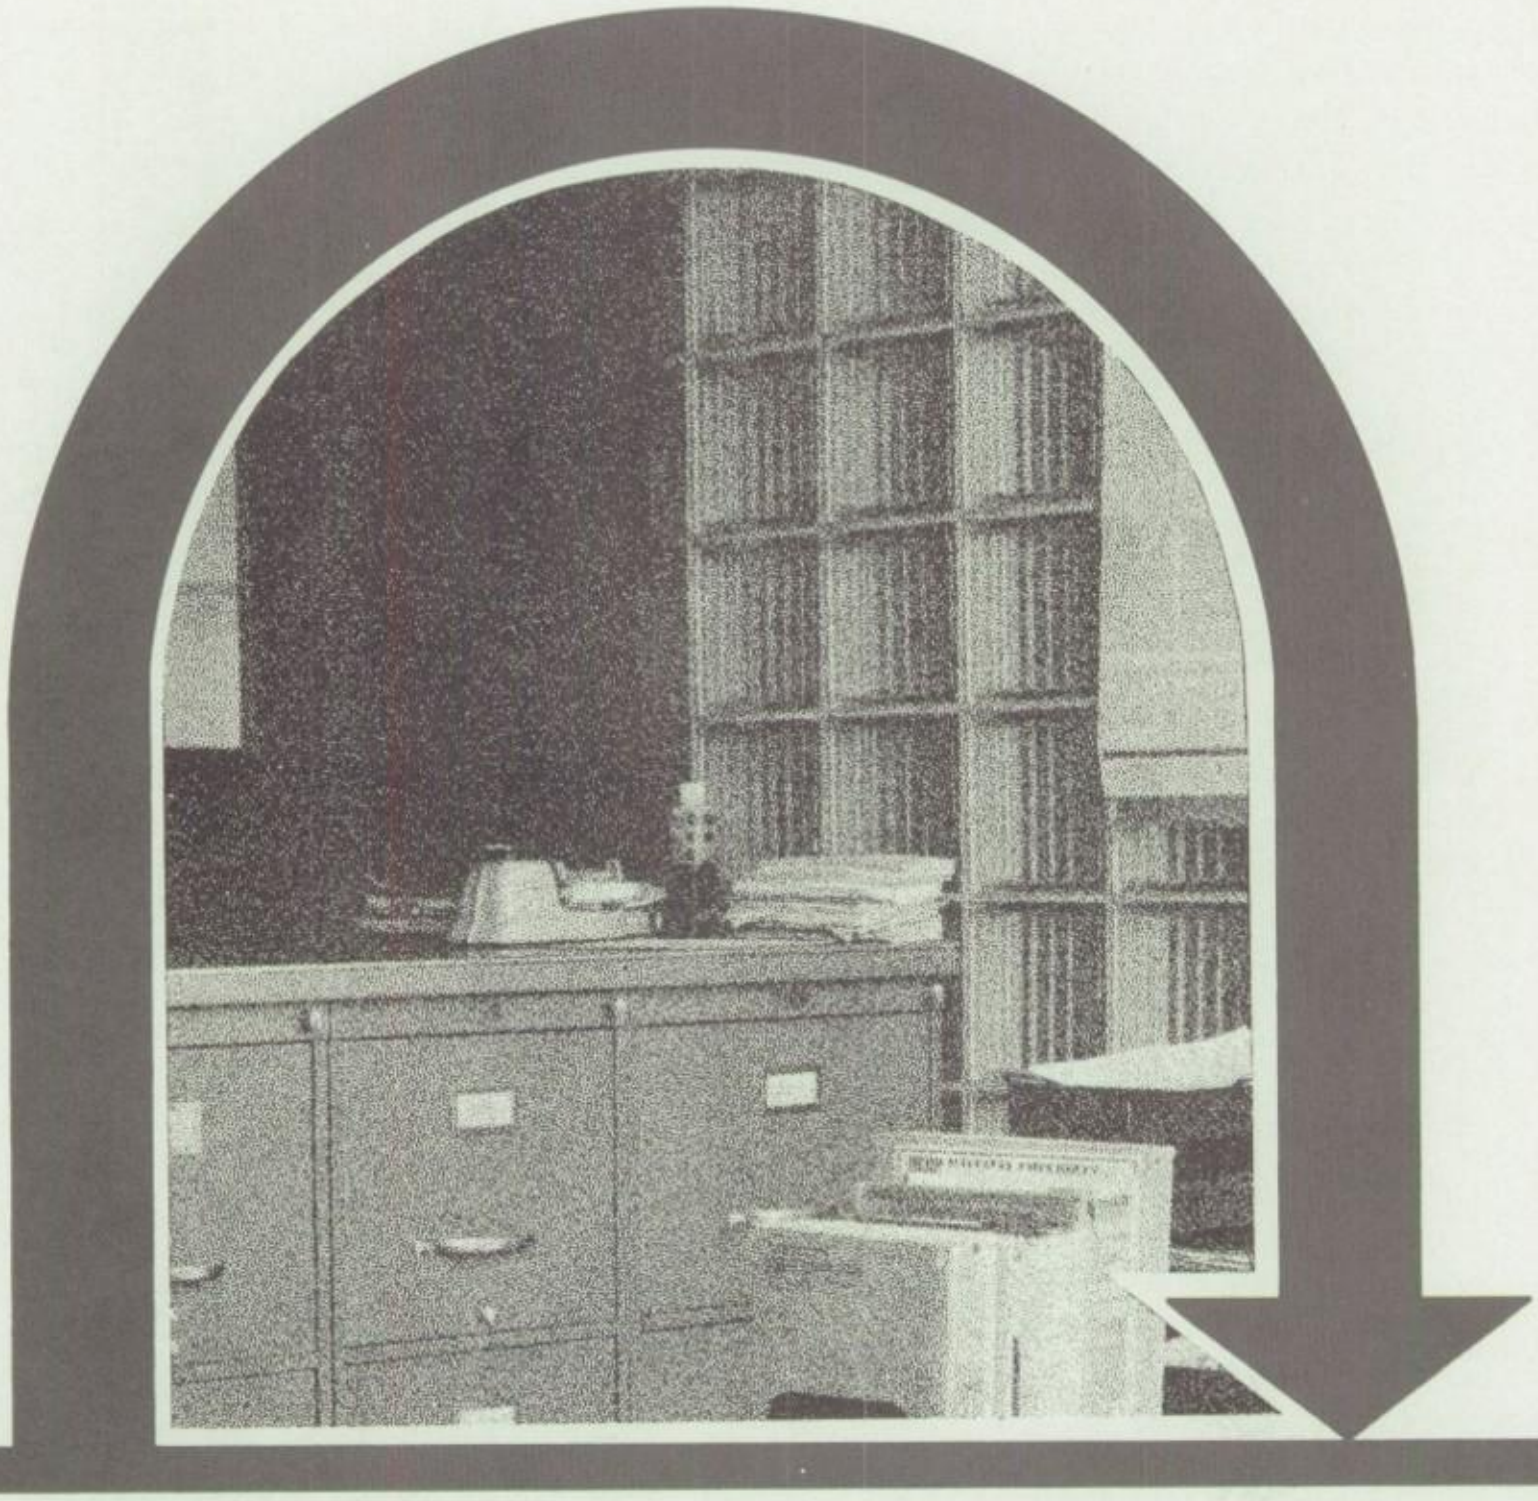
I remember spring activities-- track, counting school days, restlessness, conventions, mini courses,
Senior Skip Day, detention, May,
Junior-Senior banquet, prom, demanding forces.



I remember administration

Our congratulations to the staff who has been responsible for the 1974 Cardinal. The results of their efforts will make it possible for the entire student body, and especially the Class of 1974, to have a book of memories to take with them wherever the future may lead.

As this is being written, final plans are being made for the one week Chadron-High School "mini-course" program. Each student in the high school will abandon the regular course of study for one week and spend the time studying areas of special interests. High school teachers will be adopting other areas of instruction during the same period of time. This program coupled with a number of new, one semester courses represent two of the ways in which the school's staff, administration, and board of education are working to meet the needs of today's young people.

This school year has provided many good memories to remember. As I reflect back over the year, I can think of many honors that have come to the school and to individuals. In future years, as you look back through these pages, you can be proud to have been part of the 1973-74 school year at Chadron High School.

To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven.

A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;

A time to kill and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;

A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

A time to cast away stones and a time to gather stones together; A time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing;

A time to get and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence and a time to speak'

A time to love and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

Courses

Does this glue work on fingers, too?

Mini Courses are a unique new concept in education. For one week, traditional classes are discarded and a new atmosphere develops at Chadron High. Students are seen bicycling through the halls, making rugs and cooking everything from tacos to fudge. Girls saw and nail spice cabinets and boys accept the challenge of an apple pie. It is a successful way to revive dying arts such as rope making and tatting.

Mini Courses are anxiously awaited all year for a change of pace and new learning experiences.

Cross Country

Helped by the return of seven runners, this year's cross-country team had a good season. It swamped Gordon in a dual, won the Valentine Invitational, and placed second in the Rangeland Conference meet, with Doug Jones and Roger Haden being the leading Chadron runners. The Cardinals ran on courses ranging from one in the clouds (Hot Strings) to a speed fiend's paradise (Scottsbluff), the latter being where they encountered some of the nation's top runners from Cheyenne Central. Next year's team of hustling harriers or weak-willed walkers (depending on your viewpoint) should be well-prepared for all the "killer" hills that induced so many grunts and groans this season.

What's the ouchy today, Roger?

The highlight of the 1973 volleyball season was the bringing home of the Rangeland Trophy from Atkinson-Westholt. This was possible through hard work by the girls and fine coaching of Mary Lou Marshall and Vivian Fransto. The Varsity season record was 11-6 and the Junior Varsity had an 11-0 season.

The team will lose seven seniors, Virginia Horse, Barb Dutrow, Kae Norman, Cherri Tyree, Jayne White, Janet DeHaven and Patti Muldoon.

State Champion Randy Witte (167)

A good season for the CHS Wrestling squad brought many rewards. Their season consisted of wins and losses. Many individual awards were received. Eight men qualified for the State Wrestling Tournament by winning at Districts. They were Bob Hampton, Doug Jones, Kevin Jones, Fred Fankhauser, Doug Gimpel, Randy Witte, Steve Baker, and Jim White. Doug and Kevin Jones each placed 2nd, and Randy Witte was the Class B State Champion at 167.

Because it is both an individual and team effort, wrestling is a unique sport. Crowds cheer and yell instructions, but during a match, the wrestler is alone with his competitor and the official. His success or failure depends entirely upon his own effort, but isn't this as it should be?

Champion Sports

Randy Witte (above left) and Doug Jones (above right) were winners at the State Wrestling Tournament. Randy won 1st place in the Class B, 167-pound weight class, while Doug placed 2nd in the 126-pound weight category. These two victories capped a successful wrestling season.

Dale Stahla (right), who played Fullback and Middle Guard on the 1973 football squad, was the winner of many individual awards this year. Dale made the Middle Guard, first string spot on the Western Conference, All-Conference and World Herald AllState (Class B) teams. He also won All-American honors at Middle Guard from the "Coach and Athletic Magazine." Dale was selected to the 1974 Shrine Bowl in Lincoln. Congratulations Dale!

The team won the first place team trophy at the Scottsbluff Trapshoot Invitational. Individual awards went to Steve Fernau (2nd place, Class B), Ronnie Robbins (2nd place Class C), and Jon Sauser (1st place, Class D). The team was formed to compete in the Invitational; the members consisted of some who took Trapshooting in a Mini Course.

Cherri Tyree (left) was named as one of the girls named to the All-Star Team at the Alliance Volleyball Tournament. Cherri was the only Chadron girl who won the honor.

The Chadron High athletic squads were very successful in their quests for victory this year.

The CHS football, volleyball, and girls' track teams won the Rangeland Conference awards. Cross Country won the Valentine Invitational; and the basketball team won the West Rangeland Conference title. The Wrestling squad came away from a very successful season with a victory at the District Wrestling Tournament and a fine effort at the State Tournament.

Congratulations to great team efforts by all the CHS athletic squads.

Then in a whirlwind of confusion, it was gone.
The year fast became
just another one,

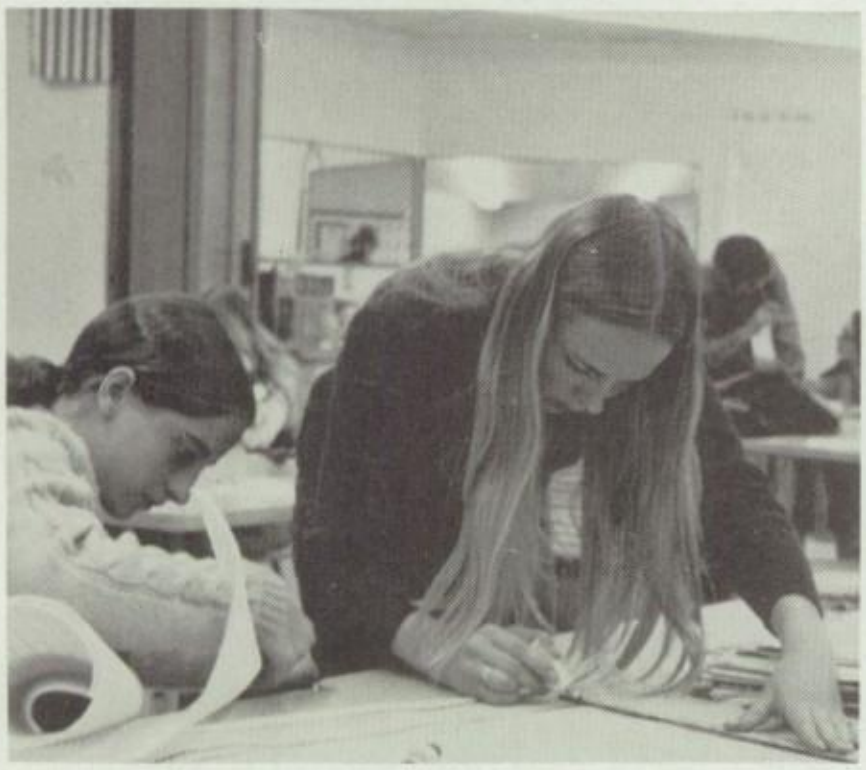
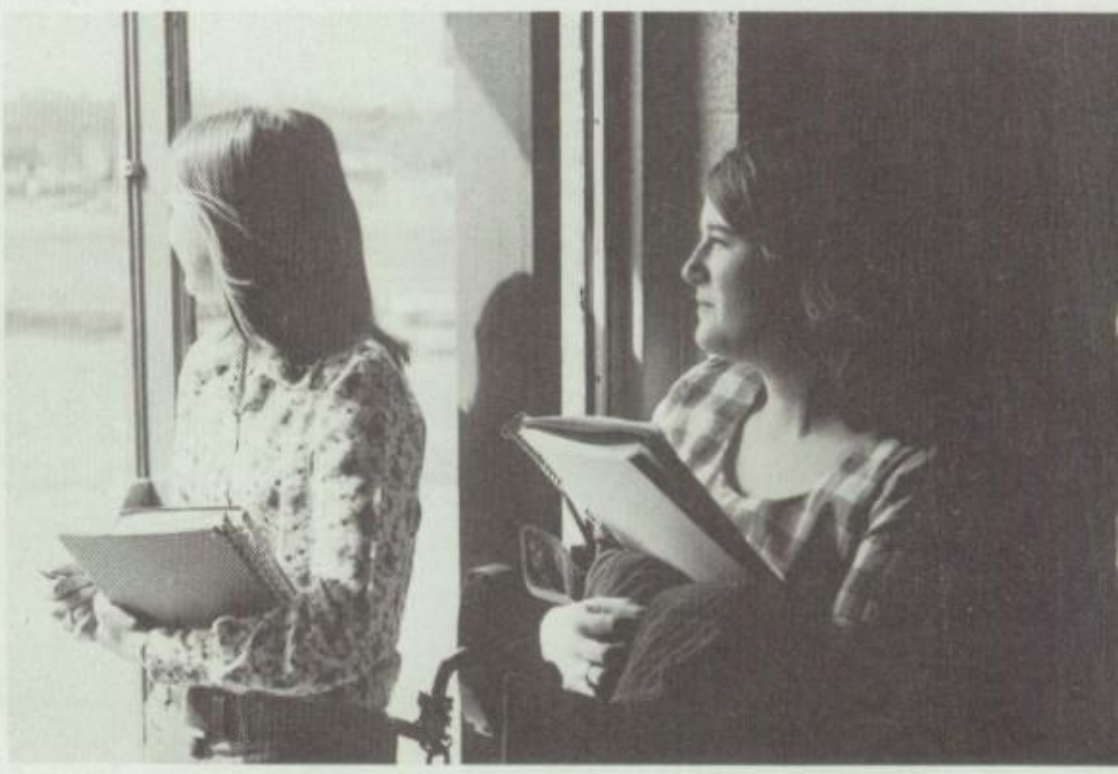
But, I remember the last days-- tests, term papers, happy faces, water fights, parties, graduation, tears,
everyone going different places,
and remembering things to last for years.





Yes, the year was very unique,
And in my drifting thoughts, still,

I remember. . .
